Report of the Event/ Activity: Awareness of Breast Cancer

On 24th August, a lecture on 'Awareness of Breast Cancer' was organised by Women Empowerment Cell in Auditorium Hall, Commerce Bhavan at 10 30 am. Dr. Surbhi Soni started the session and Dr Smruti Desai introduced Dr. Sonia Chandnani, the resource person of the session. Dr. Sonia is a well known gynecologist and a regular speaker in our sessions. Dr. Binita Gheewala welcomed her with incense sticks. Dr. Sonia explained why some people were more vulnerable to breast cancer. She strongly said that stress and wrong choice of foods were mainly responsible for cancer. Her session mainly focused on how to reduce the probability of this disease through improved lifestyle and good habits. With her heart winning style, Dr Sonia won the appreciation of the audience, as students responded positively to all her questions and sought her advice on several sensitive issues.

A total of 305 students attended the session. The session ended with a vote of thanks by Dr. Smeeta Khawani.

Report of the Event/ Activity: Report on Red Revolution

The Women Empowerment Cell of Sir KP College of Commerce in coordination with Rotary Club of Surat Roundtown organised a lecture on the topic " Red Revolution : Masik Dharm ane Jatiya Shikshan " on 3rd January 2023 at 10 :30am in Room no. 27. Dr. Sujata Edibam , consultant gynecologist and obstetrician, was invited to give guidance to the students. Dr. Binita Gheewala, coordinator of the Cell warmly welcomed all to the session. She spoke about the need for conducting such a session and how students could benefit from such an open discussion. Dr. Sujata explained the basic anatomy of the female reproductive system and its functioning. Further, she explained the physical and emotional changes that the body underwent on attaining puberty and emphasized that menstruation is a natural process and not something impure or to be embarrassed about. She urged the students to maintain personal hygiene, specially during menstruation. She also discussed about the causes of sexually transmitted diseases and how they could be prevented. The students raised questions regarding their personal health and menstrual problems and got them resolved. Finally the session ended with a vote of thanks by DR. Surbhi Soni.

Report of the Event/ Activity: Awareness of cyber crime

A session on 'Awareness of cyber crime' was conducted by Women Empowerment Cell on 20th January 2023 at 10 30 am in Multi media hall , Commerce Bhavan. Assistant Inspector Shri Prithvirajsinh Vaghela was invited as resource person for the session. The session began with the introductory speech of Dr Surbhi Soni who welcomed the students. Dr. Binita Gheewala, convenor of the Cell, highlighted the need to be aware of various types of cyber crimes being perpetuated in the society in current times. Newer types of cyber crimes come into existence and we, as a technology driven society, feel victimized and helpless in overcoming them. Shri Vaghela, the resource person, quoted examples of various cases that he had experienced and resolved in recent times relating to cyber crime. And he specially noted that such cyber crimes were increasing, and specially the severity of the crime has become very high, which ultimately have a deep impact on the victim and leave them emotionally traumatized. He also gave a helpline number to the students to be used in case of emergency. The students took great interest in the lecture and resolved their various doubts and fears by asking questions. The session ended with a vote of thanks by Dr. Smeeta Khawani.
